MAY.

BY EMILY HUNTINGTON MILLER.

The grass on the hillside is springing.

The cowbirds are singing like gold;

The robins are singing like gold;

A gladness that cannot be told.

Come out where the sunshine is flooding

The valleys with glory to-day.

And sing with the birds and the breezes.

And sing with the birds and the breezes.

To welcome the beautiful May.

The wind from the blossoming orchards

Brings to the low hum of the bees.

And the shouts of the barefooted children

At play in the shade of the trees.

Sing, birds, for the winter is over!

Sing, birds, for the summer is sweet!

And laugh at your play, little children,

For childhood and summer are fleet.

Thorvaldsen's First Love.

Some fifty-five years ago, a young woman of prepossessing appearance was seated in a small back room of a house in Copenhagen, weeping bitterly. In her lap lay a few small trinkets and other small articles, evidently keepsakes which she had received from time to time. She took up one after the other, and turned them over, but she could scarcely distinguish them through her blinding tears. Then she buried her face in her hands, and wept to and fro in agony.

"Oh," she moaned, and is it come to this? All my dreams of happiness have vanished—all my hopes are dead! He will never come back to me again!

At this moment a lady tapped the door was followed by the entrance of the object of her grief. He was a young man about twenty-five years of age, his person middle-sized and strongly built, his features massive, regular and attractive—his long hair flaxen, his eyes blue. This was Bertel Thorvaldsen—a name which has since then sounded throughout the world as that of the most illustrious sculptor of modern times. His step was firm and quick, his eye bright, and his features glowing as he entered the room; but when he beheld the attitude of the weeping female, a shade passed over his countenance as he gently walked up to her, and laying his hand on her shoulder, murmured, "Annalie!"

"Bertel!" answered a smothered voice.

The young Dane drew a chair to her side, and gently, took her hand, and looked at her with a gaze that made his own eyes shine.

"What would you have, Annalie? I said I loved you; I love you still—don't I?"

"But you love another, Annalie! I said I loved you; I love you still—don't I?"

"But you love another, Annalie! I said I loved you; I love you still—don't I?"

Beast Butler Made Respectable.

One more brutish than the Beast is found in the person of Bre' Major Lundy, 5th U. S. Cavalry.

Butler strangled his Victims after the fumes of Wine—Muley tortures his by piece meals.

He hangs awhile, then whips, then drags behind a wagon, until his Victim is exhausted.

The unfortunate citizen is thus cruelly and brutally treated in only one of the many ways in which he is treated.

No hearing is allowed—no witness summoned—no investigation had.

An innocent citizen is taken from his bed at 12 o'clock at night by armed Soldiers, placed upon his own mate and pressed beyond the limits of the County within which the supposed offense is committed.

A United States Marshal demands the surrender of the citizen.

His demand is disregarded.

The victim of tyranny is shipped on his bare back with hickory whips.

His cries for mercy meet no response, but curses and increased persecution.

Where the boasted promises of the supporters of Gen. Grant, that we should "have peace."

"Vic Victim"—"Woe to the vanquished."

Radical peace to the South, is such peace as the wolf gives to the fold. Our boasted liberty and form of government to the contrary, we are now living under the heaviest and most merciless despotism on the face of the earth. Acts are daily perpetrated by subalterns in every portion of the South, that the Czar of Russia would not dare do, even in Poland, and so revolting in detail, that King Theodore himself would hesitate in their commission. It is useless for us to go into the details of the outrage provoking these expressions. The tale is told in the leading and it is the old, old story of wrong and oppression reiterated. It is useless to say too, that no one believes the man so severely punished, to have had the remotest connection with the stealing of the horses which the soldiers claim to have lost. His more probable offense was that he expressed a good Confederate soldier during the war, and an ardent hater of radicalism after the war.

This is the same case that we partially reported last week. It was then stated that he was probably drowned, but it seems the commander deceived the U. S. Marshal, and reserved his victim for further torture. The facts are briefly these, as far as we can learn.

The soldiers, while camped at Martin Lake, two hours ride from Jacksonville, pretended to suspect Mr. Roberts of the crime, although he lived seven miles distant, and was found quietly asleep at home when arrested. They at once arrested him, and next morning took him along with them on the march, and then his sufferings commenced. He either did not know, or would not tell, nothing of the horses, and they hung him, as the confederates had expressed a good Confederate soldier, until he was black in the face.

Further on they again hung him, so citizens report before reaching Gadsden.

When in Gadsden the nerves of the poor man were so unstrung that he did not know for some time his most intimate friends. After leaving the town, the U. S. Marshal was sent for, and with the deputy Sheriff and others went in pursuit.

On overtaking the command, they were informed that the man had escaped at the last creek, which led to supposition that he was there murdered. Afterwards, near Walnut Grove, citizens report he was again hung and whipped until his cries rang throughout the camp. Further on, citizens report he was tied behind a wagon and compelled to follow on foot. These repeated continuations of gross outrage coming to a conclusion with the arrival of the Marine Fraternity at last made up a purse and started a lawyer (Mr. Seales) to head off the command and sue out a writ of habeas corpus.

This lawyer is now in Huntsville, laying the matter before Col. Ritter there, who says that the Montville Advertiser will and ought to investigate it. Mr. Roberts has at last been released, or made his escape; and parties now in town who stand night before last at the house of a neighbor of his report that his mind is almost destroyed by the agony of his situation the past few days.

Certain it is, even if he was released, that no greater indignity has ever been practiced upon a citizen, and no clearer exemplification of the complete tyranny now reigning in the South, has ever occurred in this vicinity.

It is useless to try to read of such injustice, and the fingers tingle to pull trigger again on our oppressors.

THE CONFLICT OF RACES

—WHAT A RADICAL EDITOR SAYS OF IT.

Races of men are always in conflict whenever they come together. There can be no mixture. That is not in the order of nature. It is a simple belief; all the races are of a common origin, that origin must have been some millions of years back that to us it is as though they never had been one. Two of the races show no mark of progress, and these two are perhaps the oldest—the African and the Australian. No explorations of Africa or Australia have discovered any evidences of a social, or civil condition among those people above what they are now. This is not so with any other race. No other seems to have been created and destined to live to the end of barbarism, except where a higher race not only lifts them up, but every moment sustains them above that level. With the Indians we find the remains of a better condition enjoyed by them long before the white man came to their country. They reached the same, and had subsided before we knew them. The Mongolians, too, of Eastern Asia, though they have made no progress in thousands of years, yet have a civilization of their own, which in some respects, will bear a favorable comparison with our own.

In a conflict of races—as we say, it always comes when two are in competition, the superior race overcomes and roots out the inferior, unless the former are so weak in numbers as to have no chance of success. Such is the case in the West Indies, where the whites are so few that they may eventually be driven out, as they have from St. Domingo, unless arbitrary power restrains the inferior. But where they have any chance the superiors—superior in mind, though they may not be physically—will win the day if equal advantages may be given. With the inferior, their language, their blood, their features, and their cast of mind will disappear. In Africa, the negro type, within the memory of man, has not extended north of the great desert, where the Arabs and the Moors prevail. They have been brought there as slaves, and been brought there as captives in war, but they have never mixed with the people to adulterate the blood, or gain the ascendancy by numbers. So it has been in the South of Europe. The Moors at one time were very numerous in Spain, and highly civilized, but in the conflict with the Caucasians they were destroyed or exiled.

In Italy the Africans that were brought to Rome during the long years of Roman triumphs, all disappeared. How numerous they were has no means of ascertaining, but it is estimated that no less than a million of negroes were brought there and mixed with the people; but to-day the Italian shows not the slightest taint of African blood. The African has been absorbed in the main stock, and as in taking food into the stomach, what would not assimilate has been rejected and cast out.

EDITORIAL CALL.—We had the pleasure of a visit in our office last Tuesday evening by Dr. Mosley, one of the Editors and Proprietors of the Mountain Home of Talladega, and rising Star of Oxford. The Dr. returned in fine health and spirits, and much encouraged by the prospect of the business success of his justly popular, interesting and valuable papers.

Public Meeting.

The Democracy of Calhoun County are requested to meet at Jacksonville, on Monday next, the 10th, at 11 o'clock, A. M., for the purpose of electing delegates to the District Convention, which will meet at some central point on the 2nd Monday in June next.

REAPERS AND MOWERS.—The attention of all persons who may need these very valuable labor-saving and grain-saving machines, is invited to the advertisement of the "Excelsior Reaper and Mower," in to-day's paper. There is no doubt but these are the best now in use. They can be had at Manufacturer's prices of Messrs. Privett & Dean, of Jacksonville, or W. L. Wadsworth, Rome, Ga.

STORMS & FLOODS.—Our exchange papers contain many accounts of heavy rain and hail storms, and tornadoes, by which much damage has been done to houses, fences, mills, bridges, &c. and the overflow of bottom lands, destroying crops of cotton, corn and wheat. These floods and storms extended through the Northern and Middle States, Tennessee, Georgia, Alabama and Middle Mississippi.

We think the calculations of a large cotton crop this year, have all been premature and mistaken, from at least three principal causes—the disorganized condition of the labor system, the unusually wet, cold and backward Spring, and the overflowing of bottom lands when too late to re-plant.

TALLADEGA MARBLE.—The attention of all persons who desire to procure any description of articles manufactured of Marble, is invited to the advertisement of Mr. J. A. Bergin, who has recently purchased the Talladega Marble works, and taken hold of the business with energy and efficiency. Mr. B. has had long experience in the business, promises to give satisfaction in the style of work, and at reasonable prices. The Talladega Marble has long been known as the finest and most beautiful in the country; and the fact that Marble is a heavy and expensive article of transportation, aside from every other consideration, will make it a matter of economy for people in this section to patronize these works.

RABBIT TOWN ROAD.—We hear complaints of late of the wretched and almost impassable condition of the Rabbit Town Road, from this side of the mountain to Town. Some seven or eight hundred dollars have been expended, and an excellent road made from the foot of the mountain on this side to the top. This expenditure will be almost a waste and useless unless the road is finished to Town. Besides, the citizens on the other side of the mountain have pledged themselves to make the road on that side equally good, and are willing and waiting to do so, so soon as finished on this side, but very correctly conclude that it would be labor thrown away until that is done. Will not the Town Council, or some of our prominent citizens take this matter into consideration and act upon it immediately.

TOBACCO.—If you want a nice article of Cheving Tobacco, call at Woodward's corner. It is very cheap too in comparison with the quality.

THE POST OFFICE.—Since the appointment of Mr. W. C. Wynn, Post-Master at this place the office has been removed back to the Court-house, and very neatly and conveniently arranged. The office will be kept open every day in the week, except Sunday, from 6 o'clock in the morning until 9 o'clock at night, which will be a great convenience to the public. On Sundays it will be kept open one hour in the forenoon and one hour and a half in the afternoon. Mr. W. C. Wynn makes a very correct and efficient P. M.

PRESIDENT GRANT AND GEN. R. E. LEE. have lately had a friendly personal interview of several hours, at the solicitation of the former, which we hope is an omen for good—"Let us have peace."

The Jacksonville Republican.

This paper came out yesterday in an entire new dress, giving it a very handsome appearance. The Republican shows evidences of industry and energy on the part of its proprietor, which should and we doubt not will be properly appreciated and rewarded by the people of the mountain counties.—Sclma Times.

PROSPERITY.—The Jacksonville Republican made its appearance on the 1st in a new dress. The Republican is one of the oldest papers in the State, now in its thirty-third year, and has ever commanded the respect and esteem of the people of the section of country in which it is published. No better evidence of the popularity of Mr. Grant and his paper could be given than the bright, beautiful appearance with which the Republican greeted its patrons on the 1st. Long live and prosper our old confederate.

EDITORIAL CALL.—At a meeting of a number of the Farmers of Calhoun Co. at the Court House today, the following Preamble and Constitution were unanimously adopted, which you will please insert in your columns at earliest convenience.

After the adoption of which the following Officers were elected, who will serve until the 1st annual meeting, to be held on the 2nd Thursday of October next, 1899, to-wit:

J. C. McALEY, Pres., Oxford.
Vice Pres. P. O.
G. B. DOTHY, No. 1, Jacksonville.
J. J. WEAVER, No. 2, Blue River.
D. J. WEAVER, No. 3, Blue River.
J. M. WESTER, No. 4, Alexandria.
S. E. DOWELL, No. 5, Cross Plains.
G. W. HUMPHRIES, No. 6, Rabbit Town.
W. R. HANNA, No. 11, Cross Plains.
W. J. JOHNSON, No. 12, White Plains.

(There being no members from the other precincts, no Vice Presidents were elected for them, but elections will be made whenever these precincts become represented in the society.)

E. T. READ, Cor. Sec., Jacksonville.
G. I. TURNLEY, Rec. Sec., Jacksonville.
J. W. WHITESIDE, Treas., Rabbit Town.

The Constitution provides that any person may become a member, by subscribing his name to the Constitution, and paying into the treasury $2.00, and $2.00 annually thereafter, and all present but two or three subscribed and paid.

The Society having thus fully organized, upon a basis thought to be practical and permanent, it remains to be seen what results will follow, and how many public spirited men will unite in this enterprise. Will not every citizen of Jacksonville, and every Farmer of Calhoun County, come forward to the rescue of our farming interest? Your money and time will not be mispent—it will increase your income largely, and if you have not the money to start on, ask your allowance for spirits and tobacco one year, for a quarter or half year, and you will have left ample funds to start on. Surely you do not feel much interest in the agriculture of your country, but our interests, secular and religious, state and domestic rest upon this if you cannot spare $2 per annum, and one day, three or four times a year, to promote its success, and that too, when it gives such assurance that you will be personally amply rewarded for this.

The first act of the society after being fully organized, was to order one dozen Nos. of Agricultural papers for distribution amongst those who desire to improve in the science of farming, horticulture, fruit growing and stock-raising. These papers will soon be received.

The day is launched upon a smooth sea, and that too, when it gives such assurance that you will be personally amply rewarded for this.

New Patent Plow.

We examined on Thursday last on the Hotel Parson of W. B. Wynn, a new and splendid plow, invented and patented by Gabriel Utley. It was pronounced by many good judges, the best for our climate and soil of any ever invented.

We understand a number of our citizens have purchased the patent for the State, and will shortly make arrangements for their manufacture and sale.

Further description and particulars next week.

See advertisement of Mrs. M. E. Rowland, who has just received an assortment of beautiful and fashionable Ladies and Misses Hats and other fine articles.

The special Washington reporter of the New York World says that the Republican Senators who are already known to be in unswerving antagonism to the President are Brownlow, Schurz, Sprague, Fowler and Ross; that the two first named, who are the fiercest in their denunciations, are dissatisfied because of the distribution of offices in their respective States, and that the others are believed not to be in harmony with the prospective policy of the Administration.

This writer adds: "Very few Senators in truth are with the President. These, however, have openly broken with him.—The departure of others is only a question of time, and of very short time."

It was lately stated that Gen. Grant is a Universalist, but this is now denied. He believes that all the Grants and Demts will be saved, but not the whole human race.

SPIRITS VS. WATER.—The "oldest inhabitant" has been reading a series of articles on the adulteration of liquors, and has arrived at a somewhat singular conclusion. The analysis of those liquors showed an average of about sixty-five parts of water to thirty-five of spirits. They don't give the spirits a fair chance, and the aged benedictum, "They'll keep on floating with water till it depopulates the earth again."

Reader, if you have an advertisement running through our own or any other good paper, you have tens of thousands of servants out at work for you whether you wake or sleep whether you are sick or well. No man can be injured by entering at his bidding so faithfully, or in such bewildering numbers, as the literary messengers that bear your individual word to the people of this great nation.

Bible Meeting.
All persons who feel any interest in the dissemination of the Holy Scriptures, are most earnestly invited to attend a meeting of the Union Bible Society, to be held at the Presbyterian Church in this place, on 3d Sabbath in May, at 11 A. M.

Business of interest and importance will be brought before the meeting, and a full attendance of the community is warmly solicited. Come on brethren, and assist in the benevolent work of dispensing the Bread of Life to scores of needy souls in your own County.

By order of Union Bible Society,
FRANK BRANDON.

War, "grim-visaged war," has given us the names of two of our most popular colors, Saffron and Magenta. Why may not the fruits of peaceful scientific discovery suggest a designation as well? The wonderful properties of the Pyrafuge is showing itself daily in the blooming cheeks of our former emaciated citizens, all of whom declare that until they tried this great chills and fever expeller, they knew not what it was to be clear, even for a few days, of the scourge of our southern country; but thanks to science and our enterprising townsmen, we need no longer fear this great scourge, and we can now go on our way rejoicing that at last a conqueror is at our hands which will instantly expel from our system chills and fever, dumb ague, and these diseases incidental to malarious climates. Keep a bottle of the Pyrafuge in the house, and as soon as the chill or fever is felt commence taking it, and at once you are really making a lasting and permanent cure.

LATEST NEWS.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Washington, May 2.—Col. P. Wiley, an eminent Texas lawyer, died at the Ebbett House, to-day.

Motley leaves on the 19th. His instructions are very brief. He is to go to England and await events. Grant was in no hurry about the matter, but Sumner strongly urged Motley's early presence at St. James.

FROM NEW YORK.

New York, May 2.—The Sunday papers all contain special reports of Lee's visit to Grant. They state that when Lee was announced Grant dismissed a number of visitors, including congressmen, telling he had an engagement with Lee, and must be excused. Then followed an interview of half an hour's duration, strictly private between the two—the first since they parted April 9th, 1865, at Appomattox.

FROM RICHMOND.

Richmond, May 2.—The Southern Opinion announces its first publication this morning. The editor says that the time he has thought that perhaps the mission of the Southern Opinion had been fulfilled; and adds that the distinct Southern principles upon which the paper was founded are dead in the hearts of the people, is another fact which we cannot but recognize. No cause, however just and good, can long outlive defeat.

FROM OMAHA.

Omaha, May 1.—The Pacific railroad reached its terminus at Promontory Point to-day. The Union Pacific, delayed by heavy rock cutting and bad weather, is doubtful if the two roads meet before the 10th of May.

FROM TENNESSEE.

Memphis, May 3.—It is reported that a fight was progressing last night at Brownsville, Tenn. Two negroes and one white man were killed at last accounts.

FROM MOBILE.

Mobile, May 3.—The incessant rains for the past ten days have overflowed large portions of the crops, doing great damage.

The Cuban Rebellion.

Attempt to Make Peace with the Indians an Entire Failure.

Killing of a Negro Member of the Virginia Convention.

FROM CUBA.

Havana, May 4.—The Revolutionary Congress, composed of thirty delegates from all parts of the island, assembled at Sibarron, unanimously adopted a resolution that the patriots were fighting for independence from Spain and annexation to the United States.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Washington, May 2.—Advices from the Indian country received at Sheridan's headquarters say everything has been done to make peace with the Sioux as a nation is an entire failure. The Indians are just as far from peace to-day as they were three years ago.

Richmond, May 2.—Joseph Holmes, colored member of the State Constitutional Convention, was killed at Charlotte Court House yesterday. A personal difficulty occurred between him and Marshall, son of Judge Marshall, of whose family Holmes was formerly a body servant. Both parties drew pistols, and commenced firing, which was participated in by Marshall's friends. After being shot Holmes walked into the court-house and fell dead.

MOBILE, April 27.—Illinois Press Association, numbering some 120 gentlemen and same number of ladies leave Mobile by special train for Montgomery to-morrow morning. They go to accept hospitalities of that city rendered two days since. They have been here three days, and have done a vast deal to promote the good feeling of the City Government, Board of Trade, &c. treated them with the utmost hospitality. They are surprised at fertility of soil, and at opening of industrial and manufacturing pursuits. Radical editors are surprised at peaceful condition of the country. The Daily Register has opened its columns to all parties, and is filled with these expressions from some of the most trustworthy Republicans.

MOBILE, May 1.—The members of the Illinois Press Association, who for some days have been the guests of the city, left by steamer for Selma at ten o'clock this morning. They were much pleased with their visit, and received much courtesy and attention. They go from Selma to Columbus, Mississippi, and thence to their homes.

TENNESSEE.

The East Tennessee Kuklux Maltreat a Southern Methodist Preacher.

NASHVILLE, April 28.—Some of the preachers of the Southern Methodist Church are having a hard time of it in East Tennessee at the hands of the followers of Brownlow. About six miles from Knoxville a few days since, Rev. Jacob Smith, a quiet and unassuming minister, was assaulted by an armed mob, who first stripped him of his shirt and then hung him to a tree beat him unmercifully. His only crime was that he was a Methodist, that he preached the preaching after being warned to desist. It has been intimated that Brownlow's recent arrival at Knoxville has had something to do with this outrage. It was near the same locality where Rev. Mr. Neal another Southern Methodist preacher, was so shamefully beaten and maltreated last year. Outside of these outrages of the East Tennessee Kuklux, matters are perfectly quiet all over.

When the last rail of the Pacific Railroad is laid, and the cars are coursing down ocean to ocean, travel and trade around the globe by steam power will be complete. We shall be able to go round the world from West to East, or from East to West, by the power of steam, in a little over two months. We can take the cars from New York to San Francisco, and then the Pacific mail steamships to China, which will be reached in a month; or by the British line to India and to the Mediterranean by way of Egypt, by steamship and rail to England, and

Our Railroad Prospects Brighten Every Day.

We see that the people East, West, North and South of us are waking up to the importance of a speedy R. R. connection at this place.

The Griffin, Norman and North Ala. R. R. company is again on its feet. This company has proposed to the west, expended some Three Hundred and Twenty Thousand Dollars in the grading their road, but was so crippled by the war that without outside aid they could not go on with the work. They have secured the necessary additional capital by associating with them, three of the richest corporations in the State of Georgia—the Georgia Central with Wadley, the R. R. at its head—the Macon & Western, and the Macon & Brunswick road. These corporations have all come up nobly to the assistance of this most important work, and have made liberal cash subscriptions to the stock of the company, thereby placing the G. & N. Ala. R. R. in as good condition financially, as any projected R. R. in this section, securing beyond question, the completion of the road to Jacksonville at an early day.

Col's Pennington and Harrington, the projectors and principal officers of the Atlanta, Opelika & Gadsden R. R., are displaying great energy in forwarding that which that road will press, will vote from One Hundred to One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars each toward the construction of the road, which sun, with the Sixteen Thousand Dollars a mile of State aid, will be amply sufficient to complete the road.

Notwithstanding the veto by Gov. Bullock of the State aid voted by the Georgia Legislature to the G. & N. Ala. R. R., that company is still alive, and if the G. & S. C. R. R., will only see their interest as others see it, and give the aid to that (to them) vital extension of the State road; (it should belong to the State) the Rome & Gadsden road could be completed in Eighteen months; and even should the Romans get no assistance, we are very much mistaken in the moral of the men heading that enterprise (Cotton and Shorter) if the road is not put through on their own resources. Rome is certainly not so blind as not to see that the completion of the Griffin & North Ala. R. R. will be a great benefit to the State, and the completion of the Griffin & North Ala. R. R. will be a great benefit to the State, and the completion of the Griffin & North Ala. R. R. will be a great benefit to the State.

But it was of the Alabama & Chattanooga Railroad that we proposed to write when we commenced this article. This road is being pushed forward as rapidly as money and energy can possibly have the work done. Mr. Stanton, the energetic Boston capitalist, who is at the head of the enterprise, is bending all the energy of his nature to the completion of the road, and in order to hasten its completion, he now proposes to start two new lines of cars (400 in each car) at Calhoun, and work both ends of the road from thence. By this arrangement he expects to complete his road by the 15th of January next, and by building the branch road to Jacksonville, to have a through road to the Gulf and the South.

Several stockholders of the road, and we learn a Convention of the stockholders of the Road will be held at Guntersville on the 12th of June, to make some definite arrangements securing the completion of the same to Guntersville.—Col. Donegan of Huntsville, a well known capitalist being at the head of this new movement.—Gadsden Times.

The Pacific Railroad.
Within a few days the Pacific Railroad will be completed, and the iron horse will speed his way from the Atlantic to the Pacific Ocean, and the cars that have this side of the Continent will sweep over three thousand miles of continuous railroad, and land passengers, mails and freight at San Francisco, on the other side.

What a stupendous achievement this of science, enterprise, progress and of liberty on the part of the government! It is one of the greatest, if not the greatest achievement of this world's age, or in the history of the world. Whether we look at the work itself, so extraordinary and easily, or at the surprising results to flow from it, there is nothing comparable in the progress of this or any other country. The human labors of the thousands of men employed, the astonishing energy displayed, the removal of almost insuperable obstacles of nature in tunneling and over-leaping vast mountains and striding the most formidable canons, seem possible only to a race of giants. A work that it was supposed would take fourteen years to complete will be completed in five years. Looking at the science and almost superhuman energy displayed, as well as at the enormous cost, the construction of the Pacific Railroad is a theme worthy of any other event in history.

When the last rail of the Pacific Railroad is laid, and the cars are coursing down ocean to ocean, travel and trade around the globe by steam power will be complete. We shall be able to go round the world from West to East, or from East to West, by the power of steam, in a little over two months. We can take the cars from New York to San Francisco, and then the Pacific mail steamships to China, which will be reached in a month; or by the British line to India and to the Mediterranean by way of Egypt, by steamship and rail to England, and house again across the Atlantic. We can make the circuit of the globe the other way in about the same time.

If any of the grand old navigators of former times, whose ambition was to circumnavigate the globe, and who took years in making the effort, could wake up and see what is accomplished in this day, how astonished they would be. Yet we shall see greater things still. Improvements in the use of steam or in machinery, or in the application of some other motive power, will send us, by and by more rapidly over the oceans and continents. Then it will not be long before that other mighty and mysterious agent of modern progress, the magnetic telegraph will girdle the earth and bring all nations within speaking distance of each other. The imagination can hardly outstrip the march of discovery and development.—New York Herald.

Living at San Francisco
But it is at San Francisco that we shall linger and take in the essence of California life, and cast the future of California's wealth. First we shall go to the Occidental, Cosmopolitan, Russ Lick Hotel, and live at three dollars a day—specie, mind you now—as well as at the Tremont or Fifth Avenue. Perhaps we shall have a mind to try that "peculiar institution of the city, the 'What Cheer House,' where meals and lodging at fifty cent each, with a library and museums of natural history and mineralogy thrown in. We shall certainly want to test the French restaurants, where, at sharp six and at it private table, we may have for a dollar and a half as good a dinner of four or five courses, wine included, as Parker or Delmonico would give us for five dollar bill.

The abundance of fruit will have amazed us as we came down from the mountains; but still the wonder grows at the city fruit stands—Sweetwater and Black Hamburg and Muscat grapes at from five to twelve cents a pound, and poor quality at half the price; strawberries the season through, peaches and pears, more fair and luscious and larger than our sensus were ever accustomed to fresh figs, oranges, lemons and bananas, all cheap, and all in such abundance on the hotel tables and in the streets, as to make a fruit-bellied New Englander rub his eyes and prick his flesh, to assure himself that he is not in a fairy-land dream. Then the more solid provisions! Here is flour at half the price it bears in the East, and eggs of every kind—spring, summer and fall varieties—all at once in fullest perfection! Here are fresh salmon, twelve months in the year, at from ten to twenty cents a pound, sm

A considerable portion of the space in the present number of our paper is occupied by the semi-annual Report of the County Treasurer, required to be made by the late Revenue Law; and also by the By-Laws and Ordinances of Town Council. These are matters of importance to the public, and will doubtless interest our readers as much as anything else with which the same space could be filled.

Our Town Council have patiently framed a good, wholesome and equitable code of Laws, and it is the duty of all good citizens, not only to obey the laws, but to assist in their enforcement when required.

We advise our patrons to file away and carefully preserve the present number of our paper. They will find it useful and valuable for future reference.

PRESENT TO THE PRINTER.—We tender our thanks to Dr. J. H. Lawrence, the competent and skillful Surgeon-Dentist of this place, for one of his new and beautiful Bee Hives, which is said to be a perfect protection against the moth. The hive is his own invention, in which he has shown his skill and ingenuity in other things as well as his legitimate profession. As the industry of the Bee and the Printer are so much alike, scarcely any present could be more appropriate.

The Excursion.

In company with a number of our citizens, gentlemen and ladies, we accepted the polite, friendly and liberal invitation of Capt. E. G. Barney, extended through Judge Walker, to an excursion trip, on Tuesday last, down the S. R. & D. Railroad, as far as Talladega, or further, if desired by the company.

The special train arrived at our depot about half past 10 A. M. where we met Capt. E. G. Barney, the prince of railroad builders and managers, Mr. A. D. Broad, of Cincinnati, Lessee of the Road, Mr. U. A. Murdoch, of N. Y., Director, Mr. Wm. Paton of N. Y., Director, and Mr. Paton Jr. The train proceeded at a moderate speed, stopping occasionally, to give the gentlemen from a distance opportunity to examine the beautiful scenery and boundless mineral resources of this section.

On our arrival at the depot at Talladega, the company partook of a bountiful lunch, thoughtfully provided by the kind and accomplished ladies of the party.—Wishing to return by the evening train, but few left for a visit to the Town, through fear of being left; but we were met at the depot by many of our friends and acquaintances—Maj. James Isbell Dr. Taylor, Dr. Vandiver, C. Cruikshank, of the Reporter, T. Hayden, Esq. and others.

We have seldom made use of a party, who seemed more thoroughly to enjoy the day with its scenes and association. Our northern friends were exceedingly polite, friendly and social, and inspired us all with feeling of respect and esteem; and we assure them that our best wishes follow them for their health, prosperity and happiness.

On behalf of the entire company we return hearty and sincere thanks to Capt. B. for his kindness and liberality.

Our thanks are due to Messrs. J. P. Webb & Co., of the new Grocery and Confectionery, on the south side of the public square, for their nice present of ice cream. We learn that they have received a new patent apparatus for the manufacture of this excellent Summer refreshment, and are prepared to furnish it at all times.

We tender our thanks to R. Hughes, Esq., of Col. Water, for a club of new subscribers to the semi-annual Report. We trust that many others of our patrons will follow his example.

The attendance of the Ladies is respectfully invited to the new advertisement of Mrs. M. Goode, who has removed her Millinery establishment to next door north of Woodward's corner. She has just returned from market with a full assortment of fine and fashionable articles, and we doubt not will be able to please the taste and fancy of the ladies in every respect.

Mr. Editor.—On Friday evening last in company with several gentlemen we spent an hour or so at the colored school of Gen. Hutchinson, who were surprised at the progress his scholars have made, also at the neatness, order and good behavior of the school. Gen. Hutchinson must have labored faithfully and skillfully in disciplining and teaching; the progress of his scholars has been rapid and all things considered wonderful. Spectator.

Primary Meeting of the Democracy of Calhoun County.

Pursuant to a previous call, a portion of the Democracy of Calhoun met at the Court House on Monday the 10th inst., when the following proceeding were had: On motion of Hon. John Foster, Col. John R. Clark was called to the Chair, and John A. Fleming, Esq. was chosen Secretary of the meeting.

Col. Jno. H. Caldwell submitted the following resolutions, which were adopted: Resolved, That this meeting appoint delegates to attend a Democratic District Convention (for the purpose of selecting a candidate for Congress), to be held at such time and place as may be agreed upon by a majority of the counties composing this the 5th District.

Resolved, That we suggest Gadsden in Calhoun county as the place, and Tuesday the 8th day of June, as the time for holding said Convention.

Resolved, That having in view the promotion of the growth of our population, and the general prosperity of the country, we extend a cordial welcome to skill, labor or capital, from whatever section it may come—according to all the same freedom of speech, and perfect protection of the laws which we claim for ourselves—extending to one, socially or commercially, on account of their past political tenets or opinions—nevertheless, leaving our delegates untrammelled, we respectfully suggest to our delegates to the contemplated convention, as the wish of the Democracy of Calhoun County, that if in their best judgment a nomination should be made at all, they should select one who is a bona fide citizen of the State, whose sympathies are known to be with our people in their present suffering and humiliation, and whose interests are thoroughly identified with the people of Alabama.

To meet the requirements of the first resolution, the Chair appointed a committee consisting of Gen. W. H. Forney, Hon. Thos. A. Walker and J. W. Whiteside, Esq., to select Delegates to attend a District Convention. The Committee reported the following names:

John Foster, Dr. S. C. Williams
John H. Caldwell, James Crook,
Wm. Scott, Geo. I. Turnley,
J. A. Fleming, Neil Ferguson,
M. P. Johnson, Eli Bynum,
John Ross, W. F. Rust,
D. D. Draper, P. Linder,
G. C. Ellis, Z. Henderson.

Which Report was received and adopted.

On motion of H. A. Earns, the proceedings of this meeting were ordered to be published in the Jacksonville Republican.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

New Sum.—The Jacksonville Republican, now in its thirty-third year of its existence, has turned out in a new suit of type, and looks young and fresh again. It is an evidence of prosperity in the mountain counties, and also in the Republican office, which we are glad to see.

VIOLENCE IN TEXAS.—A Texas newspaper of recent date has the following:

A young man named Greene White was peacefully eating his supper near Henderson, Texas, one last week, when he was suddenly seized by five negroes, terribly beaten, and then thrown into the arms of a man engaged in the murder (Julius Jones) stood by with a gun, directing the others, and telling them he would kill the first that fled. The same negro went the next day to Henderson, preached a sermon and baptised fourteen negroes. No cause could be assigned for the deed, except that Mr. Green was white. On the following Monday the five negroes were arrested. They confessed the crime. On Tuesday night, about 11 o'clock, a mob went to the jail, and every one of them on the public square from each side of the courthouse, the two preachers together.

WHAT A NOISE!—We know of families in which they would as soon try to do without bread as any of the little ones receive even the slightest injury from there is a cry for the Food. Now there is the Infant Hospital on Ward's Island, near New York 900 little children! Just imagine every one of these little darlings to burn its little fingers, and then set up a yell for Food! Would not there be appalling times among the babies?

William, thee knows I never call names; but, William, if the Mayor of the city were to come to me and say, "Joshua, I want thee to find me the biggest liar in all Philadelphia, I would come to thee and put my hand on thy shoulder and say to thee, 'William, the Mayor wants to see thee.'"

Mr. Joseph E. Veal, of Rome, Ga., is a first class Watchmaker himself, and allows no inferior work done in his establishment.

The wonderful properties of the Pyra-fuge is showing itself daily in the blooming cheeks of our former emaciated citizens, all of whom declare that until they tried this great chill and fever expeller, they knew not what it was to be clear, even for a few days, of the scourge of our southern country; but thanks to science and our enterprising townsman, we need no longer fear this great scourge, and we can now go on our way rejoicing that at last a conqueror is at our hands which will instantly expel from our system chills and fever, dumb ague, and those diseases incidental to malarious climates. Keep a bottle of the Pyra-fuge in the house, and as soon as the chill or fever is felt commence taking it, and at once you are really making a lasting and permanent cure.

KEVIN'S OIL OF LIFE cures all pains and aches, and is the great rheumatic remedy.

POETRY.

True Heroism.

BY GRANT P. ROBINSON.

Others write of battles fought
On bloody, ghastly fields,
Where honor greets the man who wins,
And death the man who yields;
But I write of him who fights
And vanquishes his sins,
Who struggles on through weary years,
Against himself, and wins.

A hero staunch and brave,
Who fights an unseen foe,
And puts at last beneath his feet
His passions base and low,
And stands erect in manhood's night,
Undimmed, undimmed—
The bravest man that drew a sword
In fray or in raid.

It calls for something more than brawn
Or muscle to march more than An enemy who marched not
With banner, plume, and drum—
A foe forever lurking nigh.
With silent, stealthy tread,
Forever near your board by day,
At night beside your bed.

All honor then to that brave heart,
Though poor or rich he be,
Who struggles with his baser part—
Who conquers, and is free.
He may not wear a hero's crown,
Or fill a hero's grave;
But truth will place his name among
The bravest of the brave.

THE CHRISTIAN GENTLEMAN

A modern writer thus describes the Christian gentleman:

He is above a mean thing. He can not stoop to mean fraud. He invades no secret in the keeping of another. He betrays no secrets confided to his own keeping. He never stabs at another's plume. He never takes no selfish advantage of our mistakes. He uses no ignoble weapons in controversy. He never stabs in the dark. He is ashamed of inuendoes. He is not one thing to a man's face and another behind his back. If by accident he comes in possession of his neighbor's secrets, he passes upon them an act of instant oblivion. He bears sealed packages without tampering with the wax. Papers not meant for his eye, whether they flutter at his window or lie open before him in unguarded exposure, are sacred to him. He invades no privacy of others, however the seniors. Bolts and bars, locks and keys, hedges and pickets, bond and securities, notice to trespassers, are none of them for him. He may be trusted by himself out of sight—near the thickest partition—anywhere. He has no enemies. He sells no more, he intrigues for money. He would rather fail of his rights than win them through dishonor. He will not eat honest bread. He triumphs on no sensitive feeling. He insults no one. He cannot descend to scurrility. In short, whatever he judges honorable he practices toward every man.

BEAUTIFUL.—General Albert used the following language in a speech to the Soldiers' Union at Rome, Ga., Dec. 5, 1899.

The soldier autumn of our days! For you, dear girls, the violets and the roses; for us the leaves reddened by the frost, and soon to fall. For you the bright and glad anticipations of the future—the dreams that make youth's happiness; for us the memories of the past, of joys and sorrows intermingled, of the hopes and love and bitter disappointment and cruel losses, of the days that are no more. Our country, also, our own dear Southland, that you love so well, has its memories of the past of a glad bright dawn and a morning full of promise, that darkened into a day of gloom and terror and disaster. Out of that darkness the faces of our dead look sadly and pityingly and lovingly upon us. They have not died in vain. The land they died for shall reap the fruit of the great sacrifice. Our country, also, has its hopes, that are not delusive for the future. To it the soldier autumn days are not come nor even those of life's summer. For it the roses of spring have not departed, though the immortal plumes planted by angels bloom on many graves.

PREVENTIVE AGAINST THE ARMY WORM.—We call the following from an article in the New Iberia Journal:

A planter on the coast, having for several years past, been in the habit of sowing in his cotton land the ordinary cow pea, and finding to his amazement, that those of his neighbor's crops where no peas had been sown were literally destroyed by the worms, his crop remaining untouched, was induced to test the efficacy of the vine as a preservative against their destruction. With this view, he tried the following experiment, to-wit: Of cultivating one portion of his field in cotton alone, and surrounding the other with a belt of peas. This done the period of the army worm to appear having arrived, that portion of his field wherein no peas had been sown was entirely destroyed, while that in which peas had been sown remained untouched—a result which, of course, leads him very rationally to suppose that the vine alone growing around the cotton, has proved its protection against the aggression of the insect.

After all, from the account given by the oldest inhabitants of our parish, we are inclined to think that it is, as reported, an infallible preservative against the ravages of the cotton worm, and for this reason: From the authority quoted above, we are told that up to twenty or twenty-five years ago, such a thing as the cotton worm was unknown among them, and before that period it was the universal practice of all planters to yearly sow their fields—whether of cotton or corn, in peas. Why should they have given up this wholesome practice, we are unable to say, but certain it is that since they have been the crops raised in this section without having been more or less injured by these insects.

We could not too strongly urge upon our cotton planters the importance of trying the efficacy of this simple expedient, it being both easy and profitable.

pearing to the satisfaction of the court, that the suit is commenced by attachment, and that the Defendant is a non-resident of this

WHEREAS, by an act of the General Assembly of the State of Alabama, approved the 10th day of October, 1868, it is provided as follows: "It shall be the duty of the Probate Judge of each county in this State to designate a newspaper in which all legal advertisements, notices or publications, of any and every character required by law to be made in his County, shall be published; which paper so designated shall be the official organ in and for said county;"
and in obedience to the requirements of said act, as Judge of Probate for Calhoun County, Alabama, did heretofore designate the "St. Clair County Eagle," as the official organ in and for said County of Calhoun, in which all legal advertisements, notices or publications of any and every character, required by law to be made in and for said County of Calhoun should be published, said designations to remain until recalled, or changed by me—

And the "Jacksonville Republican," being a County paper, published in the Town of Jacksonville, Alabama, and in my opinion,
clearly within the provisions of said act—
I therefore recall and change my order designating the "St. Clair County Eagle," as the official organ for said County of Calhoun, and designate the said Jacksonville Republican as the official organ hereafter, in which all legal advertisements, notices or publications of any and every character required by law to be made in and for said County of Calhoun shall be published. This designation to remain so long as in my opinion, the Editor of said Jacksonville Republican conducts said paper so as to be within the provisions of said act.

Gratifying Intelligence.

We have been shown a letter from Nashville to Capt. D. P. Forney of this place which states that Gen. John H. Forney has been entirely and perfectly restored, and that the Physicians of the Army had given their formal certificate to that effect.

This will be truly gratifying intelligence, not only to his immediate relatives, but also to his numerous friends and acquaintances in this and other States.

Wheat Harvest.

The time is near at hand, when we expect to hear repeated, and that not without cause, the complaint of extortionate demands for labor in the harvest fields. This class of laborers, knowing that the work must be done quickly, have sometimes commenced by demanding three or four dollars per day, and ended by compromising on about two dollars, for work not much harder, and the way it is often done no harder, than other description of farm labor, for which only fifty cents per day is demanded.

We know of but one remedy for this state of things, and that is for the farmers to provide themselves in time, which they can yet do, with labor-saving and rapidly working Reapers, which have been brought by human ingenuity to a great state of perfection. One of these machines will not only do the work of four or five hands, but save enough wheat which is wasted by the usual mode, in a few days work to pay for itself. One of these machines in a neighborhood will break the high price monopoly. If it is objected that the land is too uneven for their use, then we say cut your wheat higher from the ground, and only the most level and even portions, leaving the rest for the cradle; and we venture that one experiment will induce you to put your wheat in more carefully for the next crop.

The best and most improved Reaping Machines can be purchased in this place at Manufacturers prices, from Messrs. Woodward & Son, and Messrs. Privett & Penn, which gives the farmers all the advantages they would derive from having a manufactory in their midst. And we wish it distinctly understood, that we have not written this article for the benefit of the gentlemen who have them for sale, but their enterprise and public spirit is praiseworthy, but for that of the farmers.

Germania Tannery.

We mentioned some time since that a company, with a capital of some thirty thousand dollars, had purchased a location with water power, two miles north of this place, at the Walnut Spring, for the purpose of carrying on the Tanning Business on an extensive scale. This company is composed of Gen. J. W. Burke, Isaac Frank, Esq., and Messrs. Rosenberg and Rodenberg; the two latter, the principal practical Tanners and business managers.

We had not, since our first mention, until Wednesday last visited the locality. We found a splendid dam erected, as tight as a vessel, enclosing a beautiful sheet of water, some 8 or 10 feet in depth, reaching up to the head Spring, which affords such an abundant and never-failing or varying supply of water; and at the lower end of the dam, a building, though not yet entirely finished, about 120 feet long, 42 feet wide and three stories high, very strongly and substantially built. In the lower story were numerous vats, with already leather in process of tanning. These vats so arranged that one could be conveyed from one to another, and from the whole to a main reservoir by merely removing stoppers. Also machinery for the lifting and other heavy work, moved by a splendid water wheel situated at the lower end of the dam and north-east corner of the building. The wood-work of this wheel we were informed was made by our ingenious townsman and finished workman, Mr. J. J. Aderholt; and the iron-work by the Messrs. Adams of this place, equally good and superior workmen in their line.

The buildings and other works were designed and superintended by Capt. W. P. Schultz, one of the most competent, scientific and skillful engineers and architects of the country.

There was also a grist mill by the side of the building for the Tannery; and a boat 200 yards south, on a beautiful eminence, commanding a fine view of the entire premises and surrounding country, a double dwelling house of ingenious and convenient construction. This is the family dwelling-house of Messrs. Rosenberg and Rodenberg.

All this building and improvement has been made within a few months, and work is still pressed vigorously forward. We suppose some six or eight thousand dollars have been already expended, and as much more will be, before all the contemplated improvements are finished. All the building materials have been furnished by our native population, and labor performed by them, that they could do. Although this seems a large expenditure, yet as tanning is one of the most profitable branches of manufacture, we doubt not it is a good investment, and we heartily wish the worthy and enterprising Proprietors, prosperity and success.

IMPROVEMENT OF STOCK.—In passing the express office yesterday morning, we saw two beautiful white Chester Pigs from Philadelphia, Pa. directed to Mr. W. A. Scarborough, of White Plains. They were only one month old, and from their size and appearance, must be a very superior breed. We hope that others may follow the example of this thrifty and enterprising farmer.

FLORIDA ANNEXATION.—We shall publish next week from the Montgomery Mail a synopsis of the terms agreed on by the Florida and Alabama Commissioners, for the cession of West Florida to Alabama. The territory ceded contains an area of 10,000 square miles, embracing the counties of Escambia, Santa Rosa, Washington, Walton, Holmes, Jackson, Calhoun, & Franklin, with the splendid harbors of Pensacola, St. Joseph and St. Andrews, and an increased shore line on the Gulf of 180 miles. The terms are one million of dollars, payable in 30 years with an annual interest of $80,000. At the present value of the property in the territory ceded, it will bring an annual tax of about $81,000, and this value will soon be greatly increased. To perfect the cession requires the assent of Congress and ratification by the competent authority of the States of Alabama and Florida.

See advertisement of Woodward & Son, who offer for sale, at manufacturers prices, a variety of labor-saving Agricultural Implements, including Reapers and Threshers, which will soon be in demand. They have also, not mentioned in their list, a patent churn, which any one can see at a glance is a very useful and valuable improvement.

They wish to purchase a large quantity of Tallow and Beeswax.

COUNTY COURT.—This court is fast becoming one of the institutions of the day. It has been in session the present week from Monday to Friday inclusive, Hon. John A. D'Arman as presiding Judge. Quite a number of cases have been disposed of—some of which elicited unusual interest on account of the parties defendant and the character of the offenses.

May an honest, faithful and impartial administration of the Criminal Law, under the present regime become indeed a terror to evil doers.

It will be seen from the following, that the portion of the State Democratic Executive Committee residing in this District, have called the Convention to meet at the time and place requested by the public meeting in this place, the proceedings of which were published in our last paper.

Democratic District Convention.

Gadsden, Tuesday, June 8, 1899.

Each County in the District will be entitled to three votes for every member in the House of Representatives in the Legislature.

County meetings should be held immediately and delegates appointed. Preparations will be made in Gadsden for the reception and entertainment of a large delegation.

All who favor the equality of the States, maintain that this is a white man's Government, oppose Radical usurpation and misrule, and favor holding inviolate the Constitution of our fathers, are invited to attend.

Distressing Accident.

The many friends and acquaintances of the parties in this city were shocked to learn on yesterday of the painful and sudden death of Mrs. Timberlake, the wife of Mr. J. F. Timberlake, one of our most substantial and respected business men, which occurred at Oxford, on Sunday morning last. We are not apprised of all the particulars of this most distressing occurrence, but as near as we can learn they are about as follow: On Sunday morning last, the father and mother of Mrs. Timberlake called at her residence for the purpose of accompanying her to church, and Mrs. T. went to her room to dress for the occasion, leaving the parsoness sitting in the parlor. They waited some time—ample time for her to have gotten ready—but still she did not return. Finally they repaired to her room, which they found locked, but could gain no admittance. They determined on forcing the door, and on doing so the parents were horrified at beholding the body of their beloved daughter lying apparently lifeless across the hearth, with her head resting on the grate. On examination it was found that life was extinct, though the immediate cause of her death was only a matter of conjecture. It is supposed, however, that while she was dressing, she was attacked with some kind of a fit, which caused her to fall senseless to the floor, and in falling that her head struck the grate, in which a fire was brightly burning. While in this helpless condition, and before she recovered her senses or power to move, she was burned so as to cause her death. Her face and neck were very much burned, but not enough to have caused her death had she not been otherwise affected.

This is one of the most painful and distressing affairs which we have been called on to record for some time, and one which has excited a deep feeling of regret among the citizens of the city who are acquainted with the parties. Mrs. Timberlake was a very estimable lady, and her untimely death will be deeply regretted by her numerous friends. Mr. Timberlake is one of our most respected citizens, and has the sympathy and condolence of the entire community in this painful and affliction. —Selma Times.

CINCINNATI.

Particulars of the Great Steamboat Conflagration.

Cincinnati, May 12.—The most disastrous conflagration of steamboats that ever occurred in this city, raged by the New Orleans and Memphis Packet landing this morning. The fire broke out at 2 o'clock in the steamer Clifton. It extended to Westmoreland and Melotte above, and to the Cheyenne and Darling below. These six boats were soon enveloped in flames. The hulls of the Melotte and Darling may be used again. The others are a total loss. The fire originated in the chamber-maid's room on the Clifton, by the upsetting of a coal oil lamp.

Fourteen kegs of powder on the Cheyenne exploded and scattered the flames. The Westmoreland had two hundred barrels of coal oil aboard and the Cheyenne had two hundred and fifty barrels of coal oil. The Melotte belongs to Williamson, Isham and Capt. Kenniston, and was valued at $85,000, and insured at $6,000 in the Union Farmers and one other company. The Westmoreland was owned by Capt. Byers, Risk and Wolf, and runs in the New Orleans trade, and valued at $25,000. Seventy tons freight were aboard and insured at $150,000. The Clifton was a five Memphis packet, five years old, one third loaded, was owned by the Memphis Packet Company, and valued at $35,000, insured for $22,000. Mary Irvine, an Arkansas river boat, just repaired, belonged to George Wolf. There was no freight aboard. Value, $12,000; insured at $10,000 in the Central and several Pittsburgh offices. The Cheyenne ran in the Arkansas river trade, was owned by Capt. John Kyle, now only eight months in use, and was loaded with valuable freight of about 300 tons. The boat was valued at $30,000, and was insured for $14,000; estimated value of cargo, $50,000. The powder on this boat was carried ashore. The Darling belongs to the Memphis Packet Co. She had just put off a cargo of cotton, most of which was lost. The hull was saved. Value, $25,000; insured for $20,000. Rumors are afloat that several lives were lost, but up to now no names have been reported.

EFFECTS OF NIGHT AIR.—An error which exerts a most pernicious influence, is the belief that the night air is injurious; this opinion hinders the introduction of ventilation more than all other errors together. Now there is not a particle of proof, nor have we any reason whatever to believe, that the atmosphere of oxygen and nitrogen undergoes any change during the night. But there are certain causes in operation at night which are known to exercise over us an injurious influence. We will investigate them to see if closed doors and windows will shut them out or stop their operation. First, it is known that there is a slight increase of carbonic acid from plants during the night, but this poison is carried in the much larger quantity from the lungs of animals, and accumulates immensely more in close rooms than in the open air. It is therefore certain nothing is gained in this respect by refusing ventilation. The next difference between night and day, to be noticed, is the fact, that sunlight exercises a most important influence on plants and animals; but it is evident that shutting out fresh air will not restore his rays.

Another fact is, that all bodies, animate or inanimate, exposed at night to the direct rays of a clear sky, radiate heat with great rapidity, and their temperature is quickly and greatly reduced; and it is well known that it is dangerous to the health of men for temperature of their bodies to be greatly and rapidly reduced. But persons sleeping in a ventilated room, even if the windows are open, are not exposed to the direct rays of a clear sky (and the law does not apply to any other combination of circumstances); therefore, this frequent source of injury to persons exposed does not reach those in a sheltered house. As to the injury to be feared from a cold current of air, I would say it is gross carelessness for any one to expose himself to the direct rays of night or day, whether the house is ventilated or unventilated. I believe there is not known any other cause which can be supposed to produce any special injurious effects at night, and the least reaction will show that any one of those mentioned can by any possibility injure a person more in a ventilated than in an unventilated house. It therefore follows that the objection of the night air being injurious is utterly futile.

The pure atmosphere has nothing whatever to do with causing the death of persons exposed at night within the tropics; nor does it produce the death of the consumptive and asthmatic, nor the languid misery which the sick so frequently experience.

These and other sufferings experienced more particularly at night, are caused by carbonic acid, absence of sun-light, rapid reduction of temperature, the air being saturated with moisture, &c., and not by that air without which we cannot live three minutes. It is absurd to suppose that fresh air supports our life and destroys our health at one and the same time. The same thing cannot possess the utterly incompatible character of good and evil, of supporting life and destroying it.

The Iron Deposits of Alabama.

We cheerfully publish the following communication relative to the production of iron in Alabama, and hail with pleasure every indication of the progress of the South, whether in labor, the mechanics, the arts, or the sciences:

AVOCA, Ala., April 28, 1899.
W. T. J. O. Woodward, Cheraw, S. C.

MY DEAR SIR:—By request I submit the following statements respecting the past, present and prospective production of iron on and near the line of the Selma, Rome and Dalton Railroad.

Before the military raid under General Wilson (April, 1865), the following furnaces and mills were in active operation.

Oxford Furnace,	"	15
Choccolocco Furnace,	"	8
Shelby Furnace,	"	15
Bib Furnace,	"	20
Roupe's Valley Furnace,	"	20
Roundale Furnace,	"	20

Total	118
Shelby Rolling Mill, capacity	10
Briford Rolling Mill,	10
Alabama Rolling Mill,	10
Selma Rolling Mill,	30

Total	60
-------	----

Production of Bloomeries.

All these works were destroyed during the raid referred to, and have only been partially rebuilt since the war. At present we have in blast: The Shelby Furnace, producing 15 tons per week; The Bibb Furnace, capacity 20 tons per week; The Roundale Furnace, capacity 20 tons per week.

• The Oxford Roupe's Valley and Red Mountain furnaces have recently passed into the hands of capitalists, and will soon be built on a much larger scale than any similar works in the South. The deposits of ore at all these works are inexhaustible in quantity, unsurpassed in quality, and are more cheaply mined than any other known deposits.

The iron deposits of Alabama are more extensive than in any State in the Union. With capital and skill, both of which are being attracted hither, but a few years will elapse before Alabama will become the iron centre of the world. The opinion has been expressed by one of the oldest and most successful iron-masters of Pennsylvania, that while a tariff was necessary to enable that State to compete with foreign iron, Alabama could bid defiance to the world.

That this is no idle statement is shown by the fact, that the ores and limestone necessary to produce a ton of pig metal in Pennsylvania costs on an average $24 per ton, while in Alabama the same material will cost less than $5 per ton of iron. Along the line of the Selma, Rome and Dalton Railroad, the iron deposits extend from a point near Cave Springs in Georgia to within forty miles North of Selma Alabama, a distance of one hundred and thirty-six miles, and within that distance the known deposits are sufficiently extensive to employ one hundred furnaces, without a probability of exhausting the ores in a thousand years. This statement may seem exaggerated, but will be corroborated by all who have examined the section alluded to. Bituminous coal and abundance of timber for charcoal are found along the line of road at convenient points.

The above are but a few of the valuable deposits existing, but are sufficient to interest those who are looking for investment. If any doubt, let them come and see for themselves.

Very respectfully,
E. G. BARNES,
Superintendent S. R. & D. R. R.

Getting Alarmed.

The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says: "The increase of the public debt, notwithstanding the burdensome system of taxation, begins to alarm the public mind. Is there to be no relief from the intolerable burden? This is a question that presses for an answer. Everywhere industry is paralyzed. People are becoming disheartened. Their earnings are absorbed by taxes for the support of the government, and for paying the interest on the increasing amount of our public debt. Gold rises, and the price of living is not reduced, though it was a year ago according to the statement of Mr. Wells, the Treasury Commissioner—ninety per cent, higher than it was before the war."

When Mr. Sprague brought to the notice of the Senate the fact that industry is depressed, and labor unemployed, half a dozen speeches were made, in succession, in attempted refutation of the assertion. A Senator from Oregon, Mr. Williams, stated that in his State laborers received in wages three dollars a day in gold. This was considered by the Senate as a triumphant refutation of Mr. Sprague's statement, though it only went to prove that in Oregon labor was scarce, and provisions dear. So, on the Western plains, twenty-five cents in specie is the price of a cup of water—showing that water is scarce. It is not a proof of the public prosperity. The experience of the Spring Trade is that the people can not consume domestic and foreign fabrics, and pay taxes also. The fall trade will be much worse by reason of accumulated stocks of imported goods, and a general scarcity of the means to purchase, and an increasing distrust of the future. Mr. A. T. Stewart has had the sagacity to foresee, and the frankness to state facts which conclusively show that a very large portion of the merchants in New York must fail and be bankrupt next fall. His views corroborate those that have been expressed by Senator Sprague.

THE ALABAMA MANUAL AND STATISTICAL REGISTER FOR 1899.—We are indebted to Col. Hodgson, of the Montgomery Mail, for a copy of this work compiled by him. It contains valuable information for the immigrant capitalist, manufacturer, planter, mechanic, agriculturist, laborer, merchant and politician, with reference to the soil, climate, population, topography, education, productions, mineral and general resources of the State.

—We learn from the State Journal, that Maj. Lacey, whose brutality we alluded to last week, has been arrested and is held in close confinement.

Parshall, the hotel keeper at Courtland, Ala., who some weeks ago killed a railroad conductor named Oats, has been tried by Circuit Court of Lawrence county, found guilty, and sentenced to be hung.

—Mr. Louis V. Taff, a member of the Illinois press association which visited Montgomery a few days ago, is so much pleased with Alabama that he has made arrangements to establish a Democrat paper at Union Springs. So says the Mail.

A portion of the Commission appointed by Florida to negotiate for the transfer of West Florida to Alabama has reached Montgomery.

Young women should set good examples, for the young men are always following them.

The best tests of the merits of any proprietary articles is to ascertain what is thought of it at home where it is manufactured; such a test Lippman's Pyrafuge can well stand, as to-day it is decidedly the most reliable remedy for chills and fever, dumb ague and other diseases of a malarious origin, and the principal druggists of the city would as much think of doing without castor oil in their stores as to be without this popular (and deservedly so) remedy. It is a vegetable preparation free from deleterious drugs, and acts as a tonic upon the entire system, thereby by infusing the system with such energy as to throw off disease. Pyrafuge does not nauseate or sicken the patient, and can be taken by the most delicate person without fear. POETRY.

WHAT IS A YEAR?

What is a year? 'Tis but a wave
Of life's dark rolling stream,
Which is so quickly gone that we Account it but a dream;
'Tis but a single earnest thro
Of Time's old iron heart,
Which tireless runs, and strong as when
It first with life did start.

What is a year? 'Tis but a turn
Of Time's old broken wheel,
Or but a page upon the book
Which death must shortly seal;
'Tis but a step upon the road
Which we must travel o'er,
A few more steps and we shall walk
This weary road no more.

What is a year? 'Tis but a breath
From Time's old nostril blown,
As rushing onward o'er the earth,
We hear his weary moan;
'Tis like the bubble of the wave,
Or dew upon the lawn,
As transient as the mist of morn
Beneath the Summer sun.

What is a year? 'Tis but a type
Of life's oft changing scene;
Youth's happy morn comes gaily on
With hills and valleys green,
Next Summer's prime seconds the Spring,
Then Autumn with a tear,
Then comes old Winter—death—and all Must find their level here.

THE WORLD.—"Sir, bring me a good plain dinner," said a melancholy looking individual a waiter at one of the principal hotels in the State.

"Yes, sir."
The dinner was brought and devoured and the eater called the landlord aside and thus addressed him:

"You are the landlord!"
"Yes."
"You do a good business here."
"Yes," (in astonishment.)
"You make, probably, ten dollars a day, don't you?"

"Then I am safe. I cannot pay for what I have consumed. I have been out of employment seven months, but have engaged to work to-morrow. I had been without food four and twenty hours when I entered your place. I will pay you in a week."

"I cannot pay my bills with such promises," blustered the landlord, "and I do not keep a poor house. You should address the proper authorities. Leave me something for security."

"I have nothing."
"I will take your coat."
"If I go into the street without that I will get my death, such weather as this."
"You should have thought of that before you came here."

"You are serious? Well I solemnly aver that one week from now I will pay you."

"I will take the coat."
The coat was left, and a week afterwards redeemed.

Seven years after that a wealthy man entered the political arena and was presented to a caucus as an applicant for a Congressional nomination. The chairman of the caucus held his peace. He heard the history and name of the applicant, who was a member of the church and one of the most respectable citizens.

The vote was a tie, and he cast the decisive vote by defeating the wealthy applicant, whom he met an hour afterward, and to whom he said:

"You don't remember me?"
"No."
"Once at dinner, in your hotel, and although I told you I was finishing, and pledged my word of honor, to pay you in a week, you took my coat and saw me go out into the inclement air at the risk of my life without it."

"Well, sir, what then?"
"Not much. You called yourself a Christian. To-night you were a candidate for nomination, and but for me you would have been elected to Congress."

Three years after, the Christian hotel keeper became a bankrupt. The poor disgraced wretch that was, is now a high functionary. We know him well. The ways of Providence are indeed wonderful, and the world's mutations are almost beyond conception or belief.

THE BOTTOM FALLING OUT.—The Vickburg Herald says that "between Oak Ridge and the Yazoo river—not far from where the Wild Man of Warren county was first seen—is a strip of country consisting of an extensive forest, and of the highest hills known anywhere in Mississippi. Between the hills are broad valleys of very fine arable lands, which are yearly cultivated. On last Tuesday, one of these valleys, which had been recently plowed and planted in cotton, three acres wide and two acres long, making six square acres, sunk to the depth of over forty feet, leaving an immense cavern, in which could be observed—were it possible to put it there—Mount Vesuvius.

State Senator Shot and Killed.
We clip the following from the Augusta Constitutionalist, of the 12 inst.
We learn that Joseph Atkins, Senator from Warren county, was shot and killed within a mile of Dearing, on the Georgia Railroad, yesterday, by some unknown person. He left Augusta, in company with his wife, as we understand, on Monday morning, leaving the cars at Dearing, for the purpose of taking a private conveyance through the country to his home.
At this point, it is stated that he became involved in a difficulty with a gentleman by the name of Adams, a one-legged man, formerly a soldier in the Confederate army, and who was justly hostile to Atkins for an unlicensed liberty which he took on two several occasions, in punning loving epistles to a sister of Adams. Parties interfered, and succeeded in preventing a collision, advising Atkins, in view of the desperate character of this antagonism when angered, to take his immediate leave, which he did. After walking a mile or so from the village, he persuaded his wife to go back for a buggy, while he awaited her return. When she returned, it was to find her husband shot and killed, with no explanation as to the perpetrator of the deed.

IS A CURE FOR EVERY PAIN.
IS A CURE FOR EVERY PAIN.

It was the first, and is the only PAIN REMEDY, that will instantly stop the most excruciating pains, allay inflammation, and cure constipation, whether of the Lungs, Stomach, Bowels, or other glands and organs, by one application.

IN FROM ONE TO TWENTY MINUTES.

pain, the Red-ridden, Inflamed, Crippled, Rheumatic, Nervous, Neuritic, or prostrated with disease may suffer.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF

ease and comfort, and this medicine, so rapid in stopping pain, can be purchased for 50 cts per bottle at almost every druggist's and country merchant's store on this continent, and within one hour's distance of almost every habitation in the United States.
Persons who have used Radway's Ready Relief for 25 years know that ONE 50 cent bottle, diluted in one gallon of proof spirits, will make a better Liniment, Pain Paint Killer, Plummer, King of Pains; equal in quantity to

144 Bottles of the Sizes of those Lotions that are sold at 25 cents.

And the public should also know that all these lotions are but poor imitations of Radway's Ready Relief. If those who are now suffering Pain—no matter what the cause may be, or by what name it is called—if external, apply Radway's Ready Relief to the part of the body where the pain is present. In in-

Congestion, Asiatic Cholera, Chills and Fever, the most violent, excruciating, and torturing pains, will be stopped in from ONE TO TWENTY MINUTES.

One fifty cent Bottle of Radway's Ready Relief will do more service, and cure more complaints that are daily occurring in every family than $25 expended in prescriptions for drugs.

WHEREAS, by an act of the General Assembly of the State of Alabama, approved the 10th day of October, 1893, it is provided, that the following be the official organ of the State of Alabama, and that the duty of the Probate Judge of each county in this State to designate a newspaper in which all legal advertisements, notices or publications, of any and every character required by law to be made in this County, shall be published, which paper so designated shall be the official organ in and for said county;
and in obedience to the requirements of said
act, I, as Judge of Probate for Calhoun County, Alabama, did heretofore designate the "St. Clair County Eagle," as the official organ in and for said County of Calhoun, in which all legal advertisements, notices or publications of any and every character, required by law to be made in and for said County of Calhoun should be published, said designation to remain until recalled or changed by me.

And the "Jacksonville Republican" being a County paper, published in the Town of Jacksonville, Alabama, and in my opinion,
clearly within the provisions of said act—
I therefore recall and change my order designating the St. Clair County Eagle, as the official organ for said County of Calhoun, and designate the said Jacksonville Republican as the official organ hereafter, in which all legal advertisements, notices or publications of any and every character required by law to be made in and for said County of Calhoun shall be published. Every designation to remain so long as in my opinion, the Editor of said Jacksonville Republican conducts said paper so as to be within the provisions of said act.

favor of the great merits of the valuable Dar-by's PROPHYLACTIC FLUID.

From the reputation of Prof. Darby as a scientific gentleman, from our own knowledge of this preparation, and from the general esteem in which it is held wherever known, we have no hesitation in recommending it as one of the most valuable household articles with which we are acquainted.
